

Grayson county.—Robert C. Foster, Denison, Grayson county, was born in Logan county, Kentucky, September 10, 1834; graduated in the Law School, at Lebanon, Tennessee; moved to Kansas, and was a member of the Kansas Constitutional Convention, and for several terms, was a member of the Kansas Legislature (both Senate and House); moved to Texas and settled at Denison; elected to the House of the Sixteenth Legislature, as a Democrat, by 400 votes over several opponents.